

Bereavement Packages

We aim to lessen the burden and grief associated with liquidating the estate of your loved one. Our bereavement packages include an initial purge of all unwanted debris, a comprehensive estate sale/liquidation followed by detailed real estate preparation all of which may be paid for by the estate.

Estate Sale/Liquidation

Estate sales are advertised and monitored maximizing the overall financial benefits. From advertising to pricing and staging the sale Everything Organized* will provide the team expertise to handle all the details. All remaining items from the Estate Sale will be donated to a mobile charity of your choice.

Real Estate Preparation

Our complete services will clean and prepare the property for resale, inside and out. This increases the overall value and curb appeal to each home. Call today to see how our services add value to the property and peace of mind for our clients.
